On an annual basis the Center will update applicable policy, procedural and legal documents. Since many of these documents are incorporated by reference in the license agreement between the Center and its Clients, it is the responsibility of the Client to review these documents.

The superior document is the license agreement. All other documents are subservient to and supportive of the license agreement. If it appears that there's a difference between what is stated in the license agreement and what is spelled out in any other document, the wording in the license agreement shall prevail. However, the other documents often will expand on the basic provisions of the license agreement and will be enforced, even if not specifically spelled out in the license agreement.

All policy and procedure documents are found on the PAC web site at:

On behalf of the _____,
